me myself & i

this is the wierd bit where I tell you how great I am. the truth is that I can be great. I can also be not so great. I am human and like everyone I need a bit of acceptance and sometimes forgiveness. I enjoy working in a team that is supportive and brings out the best in eachother. I am also experimental - at the age of 4 I learned how to write my name and promptly afterwards scratched it multiple times onto my parents blue ford escort.
